

McNab Ridge Cabernet Sauvignon

Mendocino County

2017

Winemaker Notes: Aromas of Bing and Chelan cherries, summer savory and dark mocha follow through on the full-bodied palate. The soft tannins accentuated with flavors of wild huckleberries, pink peppercorns, cacao nibs and a hint of espresso powder make it a great food pairing wine. Try it with your favorite grilled steak, wine braised short ribs or roasted mushroom and veggie tart.

2016 vintage - 91 points – WINE ENTHUSIAST

This stylish, attractively oaky wine tastes warm, spicy and firm in texture. It dresses up ripe cherry flavors with baking spices and fresh cedar accents, for a thoroughly showy and delicious personality.
